

An open book is shown from a top-down perspective, lying flat. A heart-shaped object, possibly a small book or a decorative item, is placed on the center of the open pages. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light brown or beige color. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

THE NECESSITY OF LOVE

1 Corinthians 13:1-3

Intro

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. ³⁵ By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35

I. The necessity of love with language

I. The necessity of love with language

A. Love is worth more than proclamation

II. The necessity of love with learning

II. The necessity of love with learning

A. Love is worth more than perception

II. The necessity of love with learning

A. Love is worth more than perception

B. Love is worth more than philosophy

II. The necessity of love with learning

- A. Love is worth more than perception
- B. Love is worth more than philosophy
- C. Love is worth more than power

III. The necessity of love with labor

III. The necessity of love with labor

A. Love is worth more than philanthropy

III. The necessity of love with labor

“Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid”

John 14:27

III. The necessity of love with labor

- A. Love is worth more than philanthropy
- B. Love is worth more than pain